2. Interpretation

In the event of a conflict between any term of this contract contained in this document and the Government General Conditions of Contract, the Terms of Reference and conditions contained in this document supersede the Government General Conditions of Contract.

3. Master contract and Service Level Agreement

This contract is defined as the Master Transversal Contract and Service Level Agreement between the parties and it is this contract only that is used to procure the services for the Clients.

4. Commencement and duration

- 4.1. The contract comes into operation on 1 February 2021 and ends on 31 January 2024. Departments may enter into Lease Agreement (Annexure “D”), with a service provider for a period not exceeding 3 years, at any stage during the contract period.
- 4.2. Lease Agreement (Annexure “D”) entered into between a Client and a Service Provider may therefore extend beyond 31 January 2024 and for which the terms and conditions of this contract and any separate lease agreement (if any) will apply for the duration of that lease agreement. For the sake of clarity, the Service Provider will not enter into any new contracts with any Client after 31 January 2024, however all running lease agreements in place will be subject to the terms and conditions of this Master contract irrespective of the date that it comes to an end.

- 4.3. Both the Lessor and the Lessee must ensure that the Lease Agreement (Annexure "D") is signed within seven (7) working days upon supply, delivery, installation and testing of the equipment.
- 4.4. The Lease Agreement shall commence upon the commissioning of the equipment, and subsists for the period of thirty-six (36) months.

5. Monthly rental payments and cost per copy charge

- 5.1. Monthly rental rate shall be calculated over a firm three-year period and is payable monthly. Cost per copy charge shall include all costs for full coverage of on-site maintenance and shall not be based on the minimum capacity of the equipment but will be based on the actual number of copies made. Monthly rental and cost per copy charge are payable by a Client as per the cost structure approved by the Principal, as contained in Annexure C.
- 5.2. The Lessor must submit an invoice monthly to the Lessee for any payment due to be processed.
- 5.3. Subject to clause 5.5, and the penalty stipulations contained in clause 12, payment will be made by Clients within thirty (30) days of submitting an invoice.
- 5.4. All payments for services must be made by electronic transfer.

All payments to the Service Provider in terms of this contract must be made to -

Account holder: ENABLING SOLUTIONS

Bank: STANDARD BANK

Branch Name: STANDARD BANK CENTURION

Branch code: 052548

Account number: 251766985

Handwritten initials: g AR-

- 5.5. A Client may set-off any amount which may be or become due to the Client by the Service Provider in terms of this contract. The Client may withhold, deduct or set off from any monies due and owing to the Service Provider by the Client, an amount equal to the amount of any outstanding claims that the Client may have against the Service Provider for damages, costs or any other indebtedness arising out of this contract, provided that the Client will provide the Service Provider with written notice of its intention to offset, supported by reasonable detail of the actual damages, costs or indebtedness incurred by the Client.

- 5.6. If such a claim is not liquidated, the Client will be entitled to have the amount subsequently determined by arbitration, litigation or otherwise.
- 5.7. If the Service Provider fails to supply, deliver, install, maintain and test office equipment and labour saving devices within the contracted period, the Client shall without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as a penalty, a sum calculated on the delivered price of the delayed unperformed services using the current prime interest rate calculated for each day of the delay until actual delivery or performance. The Principal may also consider termination of the contract pursuant to Clause 23 of GCC.

6. Obligations of Client

Clients' must:-

- (a) Issue official purchase orders;
- (b) Pay invoices within 30 days of receipt subject to verification of services rendered;
- (c) Enforce and monitor the performance of the contract;
- (d) Report to Principal on a monthly, quarterly and annual basis based on the reporting template issued by Principal;
- (e) use the equipment only for the purpose and in the manner for which it is intended;
- (f) keep the equipment free from claims of other parties or from attachment and must not alienate, or charge the equipment or any part thereof with any encumbrance or allow any lien to arise thereon or affix the equipment to any other property with an intention of or in such a manner that the equipment become a permanent fixture thereto;
- (g) allow the Lessor reasonable access to its premises for inspection, maintenance or repair of the equipment, or for any other incidental service;
- (h) keep the equipment in its custody and under its control at the premises mentioned in the Lease Agreement (Annexure "D") and must obtain the Lessor's written consent for the removal thereof within or to other premises, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld;
- (i) not use the equipment in contravention of any law;
- (j) strictly adhere to the Lessor's or manufacturer's instructions as to the use and maintenance of the equipment, and shall only use approved consumables; and

13. Cession

Neither Party may cede nor in any other manner transfer any benefit, rights in terms of this Contract without the prior written consent of the Principal, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

In order to secure funding for the lease agreements it is recorded that the Service Provider will enter into a financing arrangement in terms of which an asset financier provides funding under a Master Rental Agreement.

14. Dispute Resolution

Without detracting from a party's right to institute action or motion proceedings in the High Court or other Court of competent jurisdiction in respect of any dispute that may arise out of this agreement, the parties may, by mutual consent, follow the mediation and arbitration procedure as set out in clauses 16 and 17.

15. Confidentiality

15.1. Unless required by law the parties must keep confidential and not disclose to any third party the terms of this contract, the results and any information relating to each other's technical processes, business affairs or finances, know-how and intellectual property acquired in connection with this contract.

15.2. This clause shall continue to be binding on the parties notwithstanding any termination or cancellation of this contract or any part thereof.

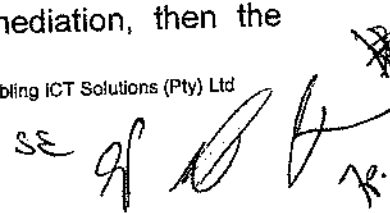

16. Mediation

16.1. Subject to the provisions of clause 14, any dispute arising out of this agreement shall be referred by the parties without legal representation to a Mediator.

16.2. The dispute shall be heard by the Mediator at a place and time to be determined by him or her in consultation with the parties.

16.3. The Mediator shall be selected by agreement between the parties.

16.4. If an agreement cannot be reached upon a particular Mediator within three (3) business days after the parties have agreed to refer the matter to mediation, then the Chairperson of Limpopo Legal Practice Council shall nominate the Mediator within seven (7) business days after the parties have failed to agree.

- 16.5. The Mediator shall at his or her sole discretion determine whether the reference to him or her shall be made in the form of written or verbal representations, provided that in making this determination he or she shall consult with the parties and may be guided by their common reasonable desire of the form in which the said representations are to be made.
- 16.6. The parties shall have seven (7) business days within which to finalise their representations. The Mediator shall within seven (7) business days of the receipt of the representations express in writing an opinion on the matter and furnish the parties each with a copy thereof by hand or by registered post.
- 16.7. The opinion so expressed by the Mediator shall be final and binding upon the parties unless a party is unwilling to accept the opinion expressed by the Mediator. In such event, the aggrieved party must deal with the dispute in terms of clause 17. The expressed opinion of the Mediator shall not prejudice the rights of either party in any manner whatsoever in the event of it proceeding to arbitration.
- 16.8. The cost of mediation shall be determined by the Mediator.
- 16.9. Liability for such cost shall be apportioned by the Mediator and shall be due and payable to the Mediator on presentation of his or her written account.

17. Arbitration

- 17.1. Subject to the provisions of clause 16, a party aggrieved by the opinion of the Mediator may demand to proceed to arbitration.
- 17.2. Arbitration shall be held in Polokwane and otherwise in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act, No. 42 of 1965, it being intended that, if possible, it shall be held and concluded within ten days after it has been demanded.
- 17.3. Save as otherwise specifically provided herein, the Arbitrator shall be if the matter in dispute is-
- (a) primarily a legal matter, a practising Senior Advocate of the Polokwane bar;
 - (b) any other matter, an independent and suitably qualified person as may be agreed upon between the parties to the dispute.

- 17.4. If agreement cannot be reached on whether the question in dispute falls under 17.3 (a) or (b) and/or upon a particular Arbitrator within three (3) days after arbitration has been demanded, then the Chairperson of Limpopo Legal Practice Council shall-
- (a) determine whether the question in dispute falls under 17.3 (a) or (b); and/or
 - (b) nominate the Arbitrator within seven (7) days after the parties have failed to agree.
- 17.5. The Arbitrator shall give his decision within five (5) days after the completion of the arbitration. The Arbitrator may determine that the costs of the arbitration are to be paid either by one or the other or by both parties.
- 17.6. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding and may be made an order of the Limpopo Division of the High Court upon application by any party to the arbitration.
- 17.7. Notwithstanding the provisions contained in clause 27 of the GCC, disputes between the parties shall be governed exclusively by, and settled in terms of, clause 16 to 17 of this Service Level Agreement.

18. No waiver

No relaxation or indulgence granted by either party and no omission by either party to timeously or diligently enforce any right under this contract shall be deemed to amount to a waiver of that or any other right.

19. Liquidation

Should the Service Provider go into voluntary or compulsory liquidation, become insolvent or call a meeting of creditors or enter into any arrangement, compromise or composition with the creditors, whether under the Companies Act, 2008 (Act No.71 of 2008) or the Insolvency Act, 1936 (Act No.24 of 1936) or otherwise commit an act of insolvency, the Principal is entitled to terminate this contract with immediate effect.

20. Breach

20.1. In addition to clause 19 of Annexure A, and notwithstanding the penalties stipulated therein, if any party to this Contract –

SS
9/10/11
11/11/11

- (a) breaches a term of this Contract and fails to remedy such breach within seven (7) working days after receiving a written notice from the other party (non-defaulting party);
- (b) goes into voluntarily or compulsory liquidation, or calls a meeting of creditors or enters into any arrangement, compromise or composition with the creditors, whether under the Companies Act or the Insolvency Act, 1936 (Act No. 24 of 1936) or otherwise commits an act of insolvency, or commences or is placed under business rescue proceedings in terms of the Companies Act or similar legislation;
- (c) endeavours to compromise generally with his or her creditors or does or cause anything to be done which may prejudice the non-defaulting party's rights;
- (d) allows any judgement against the party to remain unsatisfied for more than ten (10) days without taking immediate steps to have it rescinded and successfully prosecuting the application for rescission to its final end; or
- (e) is sequestrated, whether provisionally or finally;
- (f) the non-defaulting party may without prejudice to any other right that it may have against the defaulting party, cancel this agreement and claim damages.

20.2. In addition to its right under clause 20.1 above, the Principal may immediately terminate this contract with written notice to the Service Provider if any of the following circumstances occur or exist -

If the Service Provider –

- (a) commits an act of professional misconduct or professional or technical incompetence, which is substantial and serious;
- (b) commits or participates in any unlawful, dishonest or unethical act in the performance of its obligations under this agreement; or
- (c) has failed to comply with any legal requirement that the Service Provider must comply with in order to enter into a valid contract with the Principal.

21. Indemnity

21.1. The Service Provider: –

- a. assumes all risks of personal injury, damage to property or any other risk associated with performance of its obligations under this contract.

SS
[Handwritten signatures and initials]

b. holds the Clients harmless against any claim by any person (natural or juristic) relating to but not limited to any matter arising out of this contract entered into between the parties.

21.2. Should any such claim be made against a Client, Service Provider must settle or defend such claim forthwith and is liable for the payment of all costs in connection therewith.

22. Protection of rights

22.1 If the Service Provider fails to comply with any obligation imposed upon it by this contract, the Client may, without prejudice to any of its rights, effect such compliance.

22.2 The Service Provider will have no claim against nor defence to any claim by the Principal or any Client arising out of any act or omission on the part of the Client arising from or connected with effecting or attempting to effect such compliance or, even if the Client has undertaken to effect such compliance and then fails to do so properly or at all.

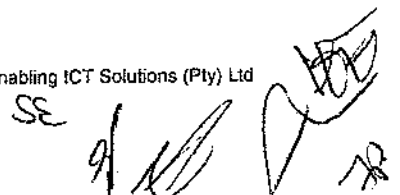

23. Miscellaneous Legal Provisions

23.1 Since the provisions of this contract have been settled by negotiation, the rule of construction that clauses must be interpreted against the party principally responsible for drafting will not apply.

23.2 In the event that any of the terms of this contract are found to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable, such terms will be severable from the remaining provisions, which will remain in full force and effect. If any invalid term is capable of amendment to render it valid, the parties agree to negotiate in good faith an amendment to remove the invalidity.

24. Non variation

24.1. This contract constitutes the whole agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof, notwithstanding any acceptance, order or other documentation or discussion to the contrary.

SE

24.2. No amendment or consensual cancellation of this contract or any term of this contract, including this clause, or of any agreement, bill of exchange or other document issued or executed pursuant to or in terms of this contract is binding unless recorded in a written document and signed by the parties or their duly authorised representatives.

25. Addresses for the service of notices and processes

25.1. The parties choose the following addresses as their addresses for the service of notices and processes:
