Message of Condolences on the Passing of outgoing South African Auditor General

The MEC of Provincial Treasury, Hon. Seaparo Sekoati has noted with the deepest grief the passing away of the South Africa's Auditor General, Cde. Thembekile Kimi Makwetu.

The MEC also sends his message of condolences to the Makwetu family and all members of the Auditor General's team in all their spheres for their loss.

MEC Seaparo Sekoati wishes to thank the late AG for soldiering on even at the height of his ill-health in guiding team AG in ensuring that public resources are utilized in an effective, efficient, transparent, accountable, and sound way. Team Limpopo Treasury and the entirety of the Limpopo people remain indebted to the late AG for his contributions to the sustainable service provisioning by various departments, their entities, and our Municipalities.

The MEC believes strongly that Cde. Makwetu's humility, wisdom, discipline, and dedication will remain a guiding torch in ensuring sound fiscal management to everyone in the public and private financial management sector.

May the soul of AG Kimi Makwetu rest in eternal peace.
